

Urolithin A: A Pathway to Enhanced Energy and Longevity

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

Unravel the secrets behind a groundbreaking anti-aging compound, urolithin A. Jen Scheinman from Timeline Longevity details it's muscle, immune and skin benefits by promoting mitophagy—recycling damaged mitochondria. Check it out!

Intelligent Medicine Radio for June 27: 80+ “Supermovers”

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

“The quick and the dead”: 80+ “Supermovers” show slowed cognitive decline; Pros and cons of ketamine therapy for depression; Magnesium—what research reveals about better sleep, stress resilience, and whole-body wellness; CBD may slow Alzheimer’s progression by tamping down brain inflammation; Zero-sugar diet may have unanticipated adverse health consequences; And more!

Q&A with Leyla: Sarcoidosis of the Lung

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

World Cup! What did humans eat from the Ice Age to the Bronze Age?
Supplements to avoid while undergoing radiation therapy for prostate cancer;
Treatment for sarcoidosis of the lung; Is it safe for hysterectomy patients to eat tofu or other soy foods? Thoughts on using vibration devices to help osteoporosis; And more!

Xylitol for Oral and Nasal Microbiome Support + Allergy Relief

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

Discover the surprising benefits of xylitol for dental & respiratory health. Nate Jones, CEO of Xlear, Inc. reveals the science behind xylitol and its vital impact on the oral and nasal microbiomes. Plus, he's got tips for allergy relief this season. Don't miss it!

The Key to Cardiovascular Health and Longevity: Exploring Nitric Oxide

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

What's the secret to better circulation and performance? Explore natural solutions for nitric oxide production with leading expert Dr. Nathan Brian. You'll learn how N101 can boost your health and enhance athletic performance. Check it out!

Intelligent Medicine Radio for June 20: Social Anxiety Disorder

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

Should you stop taking glucosamine based on a new study linking it to Alzheimer's? What's behind the spate of "Tai Chi Walking" social media posts? Vaping after smoking hikes risk for lung cancer; Why aren't there more medical insurance plans that cover alternative medicine? Keto diet shows promise for treatment of anorexia; Incidence of social anxiety disorder is soaring among young people; And more!

Q&A with Leyla: Kudos to holistic veterinarians!

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

Is there any truth to some of the latest news that claims glucosamine supplements accelerate dementia and Alzheimer's? What may be the real driver of persistent musculoskeletal pain in menopause? Hyperbaric oxygen for treating hard-to-heal wounds? And more!

ENCORE: Beyond Boundaries: Pioneering Medical Innovations

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

What drives medical breakthroughs? Innovator Dr. Kieran Murphy explores the essence of invention and creativity in medicine. He shares stories of life-saving innovations. Check it out!

Understanding COVID-19's Impact on Children

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

Pediatrician and author Dr. Elizabeth Mumper discusses her book, “Kids and COVID.” She details the pandemic’s impact on children’s health and what mistakes we must avoid in the future. A must-listen for parents and healthcare professionals!

Intelligent Medicine Radio for June 13: Smartphones and Social Media Create Real Harm for Adolescents

written by Dr. Ronald Hoffman | June 30, 2026

What’s the best form of curcumin? More than just a game—Knicks overcoming odds in game 4 comeback is a parable of resilience; a one-and-done lifetime cholesterol fix via gene modification; Do amounts of vitamin A in various supplements taken together court the risk of toxicity? Smartphones and social media create real harm for adolescents; Experts determine the exact right amount of sleep down to the minute—but is it overreach? And more!